Result: Revise and Resubmit

The above paper had been reviewed for the possible publication in the Journal of Disaster Research.
The author corrected the manuscript according to the result,
and sent the revised paper together with the replying message.

It would be a great help if you or one of your qualified associates give the final decision for the publication to this manuscript.

We would appreciate it if you send back your comments on the attached review form before February 22.

Thank you for your help in this important task.

Sincerely yours,

Kiichi Chida (Mr.)
